Safe Driving Record is Sought By President

SAFETY DEPT.—In case you've been hearing something about "Ess-day" these days you've been hearing of President Eisenhower's S-D or Safe Driving Day which will be Dec. 15.

Not that the President doesn't want every day to be a safe day on our streets and roads, but he desires that the public show what can be done if each and every one of us co-operates on Dec. 15.

With a good record on accidents Dec. 15, the day should then be held up as a model for all other days that come to pass.

"All of us agree with the purpose of Safe Driving Day," said the President recently. "It is to save lives and to prevent injuries. No endeavor could be more worthy of our universal co-operation. None is more urgent."

And his message continued:

"On this December fifteenth I hope that every American will help make it a day without a single traffic accident throughout our entire country."

"How can we best do this? Three things are essential.

"First, let's each of us make sure that we obey traffic regulations.

"Second, let's follow common sense rules of good sportsmanship and courtesy.

"Third, let's each one of us resolve that, either as drivers or as pedestrians, we will stay alert and careful, mindful of the constant possibility of accidents caused by negligence.

"If every one of us will do these three things, Safe Driving Day can be a day without a traffic accident in all of America.

"Last year, when I called a national conference on highway safety, Americans were being killed in traffic accidents at a rate of 38,000 a year. A million more were being injured.

"This year, although we are driving more cars more miles than ever before, the number of deaths and injuries from accidents is smaller. Clearly we have found that it is not necessary to have more and more deaths and injuries.

"I believe we can do even better—and that we must do better. Each of us must help.

"Won't you do your part on December fifteenth to help stop death and injury on the highways and roads of America? Let's make Safe Driving Day an overwhelming success, and our nation's standard for the future."

Gov. Stratton To Be Present At Ceremonies

Programs Will Be Held at Both Ends of Highway

The State of Illinois will officially open the new Mitchellville-to-Dixon Springs highway Saturday, Dec. 18, and Gov. William G. Stratton and other dignitaries will be present for ceremonies that day.

Others who will attend include E. A. Rosenstone, director of the Department of Public Works and Buildings, and Ralph Bartelsmeyer, chief state highway engineer. Legislators from the 51st Senatorial district also will attend.

The ceremonies will start at 1:30 p. m. at the southern terminus of the 22.83-mile stretch of brand new highway, where it intersects Routes 145 and 146. There Gov. Stratton will dedicate the project by cutting a ribbon and making appropriate remarks.

Then a motorcade will proceed up the new highway to the north, or Mitchellville, end, where a similar program will be held.

This beautiful and scenic stretch of modern highway has been built by the S. J. Groves Construction Co. In 1949 this company did the grading and small bridge and culvert construction job and this year was awarded the contract to complete the project.

Erect Highways Signs
The entire road is ready for official opening now, except that subcontractors still have some work to do.

The Tri-State Engineering Co. of Benton, which has the drainage subcontract, has all the guttering in but a few drainage structure and ditch checks are yet to be installed.

R. G. Baty and Son of Peoria, holder of a landscaping, seeding and mulching subcontract, has about 95 per cent of the work on the south end completed.

The Midwest Fence Erectors, also subcontractors, are at work on the south half of the road putting in guard rails.

The State of Illinois, which already has put on a black dividing stripe, is now painting the white stripes on the black and erecting highway signs. Signs designate that the new road is Route 145, which means that Route 145 will start at Route 34 at Mitchellville and continue to where it hits Route 45 between Metropolis and Brookport.

Dies at Marion

Dr. B. D. Ream, 69, retired chiropractor of Marion, died yesterday at 7:30 a. m. in the Marion Memorial hospital.

To Install 4-Way Stop at Rts. 45, 34 Intersection

Four-way stop signs will be installed Monday at the intersections of Routes 45 and 34 south of Harrisburg, the Carbondale office of the division of highways announced today.

It was announced that the four-way stop is being installed because of the increased traffic around the intersection, especially that on Route 34 (new Route 145) because of the new Mitchellville-Dixon Springs highway.

The pavement from the intersection south is being changed from Route 34 to Route 145, it was announced by the department.

U. S. Bars 35 Chinese from Returning Home

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States has barred 35 Chinese scholars trained in this country from going home to make their skills available to the Chinese Communist regime, American officials reported today.

Officials said the question of allowing the Chinese to leave this country is under "continuous study" by the State, Defense and Justice departments.

They reported that the 35 are the remainder of some 67 Chinese students who had expressed a desire to return to their homeland. Eighteen have arrived in Red China. Nine more are expected to arrive in Hong Kong within the next few days.

There was some doubt that the list of 35 would shrink much more in the near future because of Red China's high-handed action in sentencing 11 American fliers to long prison terms, and holding other Americans against their will.

The 35 Chinese, who are free to travel throughout this country, approximate the total of 28 American civilians in jail in Red China and three priests who are under house arrest. Eleven other American civilians have been unable to get permission to leave the China mainland although they are not technically under arrest.

The United States has turned thumbs down on any "deal" with the Reds to swap the remaining Chinese students in this country for the Americans or the unfreezing of about 130 million dollars in Chinese assets in this country. State Department officials said there is nothing official to back up the rumors heard there Thursday. But they went out of their way to reject the idea that a swap could be arranged.

Sen. O'Neill Hits Ike-Democratic 'Cooperation'

Urges Republican Women to Fight To Save Party

CHICAGO (AP)—State Sen. Lottie Holman O'Neill (R-Downers Grove) said Thursday President Eisenhower "cooperated" with Democrats to "get" Sen. Joseph McCarthy.

"They say we should be loyal—loyal to what?" she asked in an address before 225 women attending the Women's National Republican Club of Chicago.

"Loyal to a party headed by a chief executive who cooperates with the Democrats to help punish a loyal Republican fighting to save us from subversion?"

She said the picture of Mr. Eisenhower "wearing a Republican label" and cooperating with the Democrats on the move to condemn McCarthy was one of "political madness."

She urged "real Republicans" to fight to regain control of the party rather than launch a third party.

"Let's stay with the Republican Party and make of it the bulwark of Americanism it is supposed to be," she said. "It is not too late to save the party—and with it the Republic—but it must be undertaken without fear."

"Accept the challenge and turn your attention to being a strong pressure group within the party. Women can do it. Take the Republican Party to the woodshed and show it the error of its ways."

Mrs. Wesley M. Dixon, Illinois Republican national committee woman, said the speech was "received exceedingly well, by and large."

"I have no argument with Mrs. O'Neill," Mrs. Dixon said. "She expresses the views of a great many people. There is room in our party for every gradation of feeling, but we have to learn tolerance of each other's views."

Turns Over Five Restaurants to 23 Key Employees

DETROIT (AP)—Fred A. Simonson, who turned over five restaurants he owned to 23 key employees, said he wanted "to do something for the people who have been with me all these years."

Simonson, 63, handed over all his interests in his Greenfield-Mills chain—which includes two restaurants in Detroit, one in Cincinnati, one in Columbus and one in Cleveland—to 23 of his top workers Thursday.

Jack Lawrence, 45, Birmingham, Mich., who became president of the firm, said Simonson set up a deal several years ago permitting the employees to acquire the stock in the firm.

"I could have sold—I had plenty of offers," Simonson said. "But I wanted to do something more for the people who have been with me all these years. It's something I don't need. I have a wife and no children."

THE GREATEST GIFT CANNOT BE BOUGHT

Once again it's the Christmas season, and the idea of giving is the paramount idea. It will be very easy this year for almost everyone to place at the head of his or her gift list, a gift that costs nothing... a gift for someone well-known or a stranger... a gift that is priceless beyond compare... the gift of life.

You can give someone the gift of life with a pint of your blood.

Now, the trouble with blood is that, when it is needed it is always needed immediately and in large quantities.

The trouble with disaster, sickness, or accident is that they strike anytime, anywhere, without warning. If our town or our own neighbors were so stricken, most of us wouldn't hesitate a moment in offering our blood for relief of sickness or injury.

The trouble with US is that UNTIL sickness, accident or disaster strikes, we don't feel too urgently the need for giving blood. We don't realize that the blood we might need and receive in emergencies wouldn't be blood donated on the spot... not all of it, though some might be... but blood donated earlier, many miles away, by people just like us, who did recognize the need for reserve supplies of blood and did something about it.

Chances are that these people donated their blood—a pint per person, which no one really missed—during the visit of the Red Cross Bloodmobile to their communities. We are again going to be offered that same opportunity.

The Bloodmobile will be at the Harrisburg Elks club on Friday, Dec. 17, and at the Carrier Mills Masonic Temple on Saturday, Dec. 18. Local Red Cross chapter officials have been asked to rally enough donors to furnish 400 pints of blood during these two days. This figure represents our share of the nation's reserve blood supply. It isn't too much to ask, really, and we feel that Saline county residents can do the job.

The Bloodmobile will be in operation from 12 noon until 6 p. m. both days. The trained doctors and nurses will be there. The volunteer workers will be there. And the need will be there. SEE THAT YOU ARE THERE!

GIVE YOUR CHRISTMAS GIFT OF LIFE TO SOMEONE!

Dr. Sheppard Denies Killing Wife in Final Story to Jury

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Sitting prayerlike and with eyes closed in the witness chair, Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard told today how he found his wife so badly beaten in her bed that he thought "it was all a terrible nightmare or dream."

Dr. Sheppard told his story for the final time to his wife-murder jury in an attempt to save himself from the electric chair.

In two short words, he denied he had killed his pretty, pregnant wife, Marilyn Reese Sheppard, 31. His defense attorney recalled to him that Cleveland homicide Detective Robert Schottke had accused him a few hours after the murder of committing the crime with the words "I believe you killed Marilyn."

Atty. William J. Corrigan asked him if he felt the Schottke statement was false. He replied he did. "It is false, isn't it?" Corrigan demanded, emphasizing the "is."

"It is," Dr. Sheppard replied quickly.

"I was horrified—I was shaken beyond explanation, and I felt that maybe I'd wake up, that maybe this was all a terrible nightmare or dream," the boyish-faced defendant said.

Speaking slowly, with frequent pauses, but using lucid, articulate sentences, Dr. Sam recited how he twice was knocked out by a bushy-haired man.

That was when he, sleeping on the living room couch, had been awakened by his wife's scream. He dashed upstairs and was knocked out by a "form."

Dr. Sheppard is accused of bludgeoning his wife to death with at least 25 savage blows after quarreling with her about his affairs with other women. He has pictured himself as a loving husband. He said he was exhausted that night—the evening of last July 3—by his efforts in the hospital to save a child's life.

He had gone to sleep watching television on the living room couch. "I was awakened by her cries," he continued. "My drowsy recollection was stimulated to go to Marilyn, which I did as soon as I could navigate."

Plan Fund Drive At Centralia For New Hospital

CENTRALIA, Ill. (AP)—Plans are under way for a fund drive to raise about $250,000 in public subscriptions toward construction of a new 1-2 million dollar 180-bed hospital here.

It is hoped construction on the new hospital can start next June. It will be owned and operated by sisters of the Felician order of the Roman Catholic church. The new hospital will replace the 80-bed St. Mary's hospital built in 1909 and operated by the Felician sisters.

Chicago Merchant Prince Dies at 97

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—William A. Wieboldt, a German immigrant boy who became one of the last of Chicago's merchant princes, died Thursday night. He was 97 years old.

Wieboldt came to Chicago at the age of 14 with $5 in his pocket. He became the owner of six department stores and a multi-millionaire.

Boulder Crashes Into Home, One Dead, Two Hurt

MALIBU, Calif. (AP)—A man was crushed to death and two persons were injured today when a huge boulder toppled down a mountainside and crashed through the roof of a Malibu Lake home.

Los Angeles County sheriff's deputies identified the dead man as Ernest Absher, 66, Reseda, Calif.

Deputies said Absher's body was trapped under the boulder. Deputies and county firemen used large planks and jacks in an effort to remove the boulder.

The boulder, measuring an estimated six feet in diameter, crashed into the living room of a lake-side home on Sugarloaf Drive owned by Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Miller.

Deputies said Miller, 67, suffered possible internal injuries and his wife Della, 71, received multiple fractures of the lower extremities. Both were rushed to Valley Receiving Hospital, where they were described in "fair" condition.

New Japanese Premier Pledges To Cooperate

By EARNEST HOBERECHT
United Press Staff Correspondent
TOKYO (AP)—New Foreign Minister Mamoru Shigemitsu, who signed Japan's surrender aboard the battleship Missouri, today pledged "cooperation" with the "free nations of the world, in particular the United States."

Shigemitsu told United Press that while cooperating with the free world Japan would be "willing to adjust our relations with our continental neighbors if they will put into practice the avowed policy of peaceful co-existence."

Shigemitsu, in an obvious reference to Red China, cautioned that close relations with the Communists would have to be "on mutually acceptable terms without prejudice to our basic relations with the free nations."

Not Much Expected Now
Although the new ruling party promised expanded trade with Communist countries in its pre-election statements, Shigemitsu said, "We do not expect much from it at this juncture, but we shall welcome opportunities of expanding its present slender volume without compromising our commitments with the free nations."

Shigemitsu, wearing morning coat and striped pants and smoking a cigarette through a long ivory cigarette-holder, met this correspondent in Tokyo's Marunouchi Hotel. He walked with the aid of crutches. He lost a leg in a bombing incident in Shanghai before World War II.

Shigemitsu was listed a major Japanese war criminal at the insistence of the Russians, who demanded he be tried because they did not like some of the diplomatic settlements he worked out with them over Far Eastern incidents.

He was sentenced to seven years and parole. He started a new political party, the Progressives, which later merged with new Premier Ichiro Hatoyama's new Japan Democratic party. Shigemitsu is vice president of this new government party.

Shigemitsu was named foreign minister today in the new Hatoyama government.

Indictment is Returned by Federal Jury

Action Follows Conviction on Extortion Charge

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Evan R. Dale, southern Illinois labor leader, was indicted today on a charge of evading $104,656 in federal income taxes.

A federal grand jury returned a six-count indictment charging the Carbondale, Ill., union official paid taxes of $6,754 for the years 1948-53, when he should have paid $111,410.

Dale, president of the Southern Illinois District Council of Common Laborers, was convicted only Tuesday at East St. Louis of trying to extort $1,030,000 from contractors on a $160,000 steam electric plant at Jopka, Ill.

The plant was being built for a five-company power combine and will furnish power to an Atomic Energy Commission installation across the Ohio river at Paducah, Ky.

Biggest Case in District
Asst. U. S. Atty. Robert Oxtoby told reporters the income tax indictment was one of the biggest tax cases returned in this court district.

Oxtoby said the government would allege that the money Dale failed to report came from "pay-offs" received from contractors.

The first five counts of the indictment charge that for 1948-52, Dale reported income totaling $29,954 and paid taxes of $6,754.

The grand jury said Dale's actual income for the five years was $193,570 and Dale should have paid $36,910 in taxes.

For 1953, the jury charged, Dale failed to make any income tax return. The indictment estimated his income for that year at $45,000 and said he owed an income tax of $24,500.

Charge Wilful Evasion
The indictment charged Dale "wilfully and knowingly attempted to evade and defraud a large part" of the tax due from him.

The same jury that convicted Dale at East St. Louis on the attempted extortion charge Tuesday also found him guilty of actually extorting $7,500 in 1950 from an Ohio contractor. The defense has indicated it will appeal the verdict.

Besides these charges and the ones returned here today, Dale is named in four other labor racketeering indictments and another charging income tax evasion, handed down at St. Louis and East St. Louis.

First Count for 1947
The first income tax indictment, returned last March 10, charges Dale evaded payment of $4,488 in taxes in 1947.

Dale, a 38-year-old grandfather, was described in his East St. Louis trial as a labor boss with "38,000 laborers in the palm of his hand."

Witnesses said he boasted of "trading a shovel for a blackjack" when he decided to become a union official in his early 20s.

He has been active in Republican politics in southern Illinois, and was a labor adviser at the 1952 GOP national convention.

Dale lives at Carbondale and has an office at Cairo, Ill. He has jurisdiction over 32 local unions in 23 Illinois and Kentucky counties.

Shawneetown Wins Tourney in 66-42 Final Victory Over Ridgway

Crab Orchard Defeats Royalton In Consolation

Unbeaten Shawneetown captured the ninth annual Equality Invitational tournament last night in true championship style, as they disposed of unexpected finalist, Ridgway high, by a 66-42 score. A capacity crowd watched the two Gallatin county clubs battle for the title.

Crab Orchard displayed plenty of power in toying with Royalton, defending champs, for consolation honors. The Trojans beat Royalton, 67-36.

Shawneetown's victory was strictly a team show with four of the starting five tallying ten points or more. Bobby Spottsville and Garrison Newsom led the offensive parade with 20 and 18 points respectively for the victors. Don Crayne was high man for the losing Eagles with 16 counters.

Indians Lead 32-19 at Half
The Indians wrecked all Ridgway hopes of an upset by shooting a brilliant 480 from the field. They hit 25 of 52 attempts. They were also superior at the charity line, bagging 16 of 22 efforts. Ridgway notched 16 of 51 from the field for a .314 and 10 of 19 at the free throw line.

Al Penman's Eagles got off to a flying start and indicated a typical Shawnee-Ridgway battle was in line. They held early leads of 3-0 and 7-4 before the Indians overhauled them late in the initial period. The quarter score was Shawneetown 14, Ridgway 11.

In the second period Ridgway's offensive could not keep pace with the rapid-firing Indians, and after the barrage cleared, Shawnee had Barney Genisio's cagers continued a 32-19 halftime advantage. used to outpoint their opponents in the third and fourth cantos. Ridgway's hard play of the past two nights, told noticeably. Don Crayne's nine points in the third kept Ridgway in the fray, as the Indians outscored the Eagles 16-13 for the period.

In the final session, Shawneetown slowed the game and played control ball. Ridgway in desperation committed several fouls, and the Indians took advantage of the situation, hitting 10 of 12 for the period. Both teams scored four times from the field during the quarter.

The consolation game was a one-sided affair with Royalton failing to show any form during the last three periods. Crab Orchard climbed on top 12-8 before the quarter ended, and they broke the game open in the second with an 18-point spree. They led 30-14 at the half.

Trophies Presented
The twice-beaten Trojans resumed the rout after the intermission and outscored the Pirates 20-6 in the third for a 50-20 edge. The final quarter was dominated by substitutions, time outs and ragged play.

At the conclusion of the championship game, Harry Walker, Equality principal, presented trophies to tourney champs, Shawneetown, runners-up, Ridgway and consolation winners, Crab Orchard.

Bannister Quits Competition

LONDON, England AP—Dr. Roger Bannister, the world's first four-minute miler, retired from competition today because he can't be content with "second-rate performances."

The tall, blond Briton, who brought a sports dream to a stunning reality last May 6 when he flashed a mile over the Iffley Road track at Oxford in 3 minutes, 59.4 seconds, announced his retirement at Thursday night's dinner of the British Sportswriters Association.

The announcement fulfilled Bannister's promise that he would quit track when it interfered with his medical career.

"Since the European games, it has become increasingly difficult for me to train," explained the 23-year-old physician. "And now that I am taking up a resident hospital appointment, I'm afraid it will be impossible to combine competitive athletics with my work as I have tried to do in the past."

"I will not have sufficient time to train for a first-class performance. And it would be wrong to produce second-rate performances when representing my country."

The announcement dashed last English hopes that Bannister would compete in the 1956 Olympic Games in Melbourne, Australia.

Bannister's announcement came just one day after John Landy of Australia, the man he defeated in the famed "Mile of the Century" at Vancouver, B. C., on Aug. 7, announced in Australia that he probably would not compete in the next Olympics because of the conflict with his teaching career.

Although Bannister retires with his place as an all-time sports hero secure, he is not now the world mile record holder. His 3:59.4 mark stood as the record for only seven weeks until Landy, racing in Finland, was clocked in 3:58.0.

CARBONDALE, Ill. (U)—Incomplete enrollment figures for the winter quarter at Southern Illinois university indicate there will be 900 more students on the campus this term than in the same period a year ago.

Registrar Robert A. McGrath said 4,227 resident students were registered and with three days remaining for late registration he predicted the total enrollment might top 4,300 for the term.

Final registration for the 1953-54 winter quarter was 3,380, a record up to that time. The previous peak came in 1948-49 with 2,900 students on the campus.

McGrath said the present enrollment includes 1,458 freshmen, 903 sophomores, 608 juniors, 476 seniors, 228 graduate students, 44 unclassified undergraduates, 376 vocational-technical institute day students, and 136 at the Belleville residence center.

Moral Decay Worse Than Europe's Physical Decline, Dinner Club Advised

Moral and spiritual decay is found to be far worse than physical decline in the nations of Europe, Southern Illinois Dinner club members were informed last night. This viewpoint was expressed by Mrs. Irene Walker Bowman of Woodward, Okla., who has a rich background as a former teacher and as a world traveler is a keen observer of world affairs.

Mrs. Bowman gave her views of Germany, France, Italy, Switzerland, England and of world affairs in general as she found them by her own observation.

Germany she found is the growing power of Europe which has made a tremendous comeback and whose industry and production are very high. The Western powers were not disillusioned the German people, she said, because Germany, which wants unity, is going to bargain for its freedom in the months to come.

France, with a complicated government, is gone as a first class power, she said. Communism is very strong and the character of the French people has been ruined by black markets and moral decadence.

Italy, Mrs. Bowman said, has the largest communist party outside of Russia, and in spite of the Catholic church and the strong fight of Pope Pius XII against communism, the people have accepted it because of the extreme poverty and hunger. This nation is also replete with moral decadence. Mrs. Bowman said, and while reconstruction has been rapid the wage scales have been very low while basic costs of food and clothing have been high. The discrepancy of the very rich and the very poor have brought dissatisfaction.

England, which has lost its place as the top world power which it will never regain, nevertheless still has a united empire, although smaller than it was. England, she said, is beginning again to hold a balance of power on the continent and is seeking to bring a solidarity to the free people.

Switzerland, a nation of people with different nationalities and religions, has proved that such people can get along and build a strong government. Switzerland has had no war in over 400 years and is united and willing to fight for its freedom, she said.

Mrs. Bowman stressed that while America has the highest standards of the world, no nation maintains a status quo—it must progress or regress, she said. We must have respect for the rights of others, she said, and we are beginning to realize that while military might is necessary, moral courage is more important.

We must realize, she said, that nations can destroy themselves with moral decay. We must set the example for the free world and not impose our way on others by police methods.

"It is only by lighting the candle of understanding and trust in God that free people survive," Mrs. Bowman stated.

Bruce Burnett, who has been president for this year, presided at his last meeting as Hudson Mudge will be the new president at the January meeting.

The invocation was given by Rev. W. E. Hannegan of Eldorado and Mrs. Bowman was introduced by Paul McGinnis, also of Eldorado.

Norris Denounces Fight-Fixing
Charges as Character Assassination

NEW YORK (AP)—James D. Norris Jr., president of the International Boxing Club, said Thursday that charges he "fixed" two fights several years ago were a "character assassination plot designed to destroy boxing and the International Boxing Club."

Norris was referring to a copyrighted story written for Sports Illustrated magazine by former heavyweight boxer Harry Thomas, in which Thomas said Norris helped to fix the bouts he lost by knockouts to Max Schmeling at Madison Square Garden, Dec. 13, 1937, and to Tony Galento in Philadelphia, Nov. 14, 1938.

Norris called the accusations "libelous and defamatory statements" and added, "I have turned the matter over to my lawyers."

The IBC president, who issued one statement denying the charges Wednesday night shortly after the charges became known, issued another late Thursday after having "time to examine the magazine piece."

In the article, Thomas wrote that he was offered $55,000 to lose to Schmeling, which he did on a technical knockout in the eighth round. He wrote he was offered $6,000 to lose to Galento, which he did on a technical knockout in the third round.

Bartholomew is Named President
Of United Press

NEW YORK (AP) — Announcement was made today of the election of Frank H. Bartholomew as president and general manager of the United Press succeeding Hugh Baillie who becomes chairman of the board.

The change will be effective April 6, 1955, which is the 20th anniversary of Baillie becoming president of the U. P.

"I feel that with Frank Bartholomew at the helm the United Press will be in the best possible hands," Baillie said. "He and I have been friends and associates for 33 years."

"Bartholomew has been a vice president of the United Press in charge of the Pacific area since 1938, a director since 1949, and first vice president since last August. His territory has included the Pacific Coast states, Hawaii, Mexico, Central America, Alaska, Australia and New Zealand, and a tour of duty in New York."

"During the war and subsequently Bartholomew covered frontline action in New Guinea, Okinawa, the Philippines, the Aleutians and Korea. He was the last correspondent out of Shanghai before the city was captured by the Communists in 1949. His most recent trip to a war front was in Indochina last summer."

U. I. Meeting Monday
To Discuss Extension,
Farm Bureau Split

CHAMPAIGN (AP) — The University of Illinois today announced a meeting will be held here Monday to discuss Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson's memo calling for a split between Farm Bureau Organizations and the Extension Service.

Dean Louis B. Howard of the university's Agriculture College, head of the state Extension Service, said a newly-named advisory committee of farmers and home-makers will meet with college officials.

Howard said the purpose of the meeting is "to consider possible changes in the cooperative relationship between the Extension Service and the county farm and home bureaus of the state."

Benson's memo frowned on the practice of farm organizations contributing to the cost of extension work by paying part of the salary of farm and home advisers and other means.

Navy to Help Ease
Move of Dependents
In Ships Transfer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy said today that dependents of crews aboard 34 ships being transferred from the East to West Coast will be given special treatment to ease the move.

The home ports of the 34 ships, ranging in size from the carrier Midway to LSTs, are being shifted from the East to West Coast to ease the rotational requirements on ships in the Pacific and give them more time in home port.

As part of its effort to minimize inconvenience, the Navy will permit officers and enlisted men to exchange duty where feasible with other Atlantic Fleet personnel who desire transfer to the West Coast.

Looking At Sports

By BILL MELTON

When Bob Vogel, 247-pound tackle and fullback, received his Eldorado varsity football letter Tuesday it marked the fourth such award he had received. Coach Al Adams remarked "This is the only player to letter all four years since I have been coach and to the best of my knowledge the only one in a long time at ETHS."

Adams also revealed that Ronnie Clark, quarterback, played every second this past season while Eldorado was on offense. "We had another quarterback," Adams said, "but never had a chance to see how he could operate under game conditions as there was no reason to take Clark from the game."

The Arena in St. Louis will host a couple of outstanding sports attractions within the next few days. Sunday the Harlem Globetrotters will pay their annual winter visit to St. Louis and next Wednesday night there will be a National league hockey game, featuring the Chicago Blackhawks and the Toronto Maple Leafs.

Sunday night's basketball show will be a doubleheader with the Trojans meeting the Philadelphia Spahs in the main go. The preliminary game will have the Washington, D. C. Generals facing the Toledo Mercurys.

Among the well known players to appear on the program are a couple of seven foot cage stars. Bill Spivey, former Kentucky great, plays with the Generals and Walter Dukes, former Seton Hall university all-American is with the Globetrotters. Of course, the most famous of all, "Goose" Tatum, will be there to lead the Trojans, both in playing and entertaining.

The Daily Register's new feature in this column, the "you pick 'em" from a list of outstanding basketball games in the area, has been well received with many replies coming to the sports desk. We will give you the first expert in this column next week—probably Monday.

The IAC will hold its wrestling meet at Champaign Saturday and Southern Illinois university will enter a squad that includes six lettermen. Coach Jim Wilkerson's SIU team includes the conference champ at 123 pounds—Bob Whelen from Chicago. There will be representatives in the meet from five of the seven members of the conference. Present will be wrestlers from Northern Illinois Teachers, Illinois Normal university, Western and Eastern Teachers colleges along with SIU. The Michigan members of the loop do not participate in wrestling.

The next basketball tournament, involving teams from this area, is scheduled for Dec. 22 and 23 at Eldorado. It is the annual blind draw meet featuring teams from Anna, Metropolis, Cairo and Eldorado. This is the third year for the tourney with Anna taking honors the first time and Eldorado bringing home the championship trophy in the last meet held.

Berra Named American L. Most Valuable Player As Indians Divide Vote

NEW YORK (AP)—Yogi Berra, the slugging Yankee catcher who "didn't think I'd get it," wound up winning the American League's Most Valuable Player award for the second time in his career today while four Cleveland "also rans" wound up victims of a divided vote.

Berra, winner of his first MVP award in 1951, compiled a point total of 230, which afforded him a comfortable edge over the runner-up, outfielder Larry Doby of the Indians, who collected 210.

Doby, the league's runs-batted-in leader with 126, was one of four Cleveland players to finish among the first six candidates. He was followed by teammate Bobby Avila with 203 points, White Sox outfielder Minnie Minoso with 186, and two Indian pitchers—Bob Lemon, 179, and Early Wynn, 72.

Actually, the 29-year-old Berra rode to his MVP victory on a "split ticket."

Couldn't Agree

The committee of 24 baseball writers who voted couldn't quite agree which Cleveland player was most valuable. So, while Doby, Avila and Lemon were receiving five first-place votes apiece, Berra broke through the Indians' barricade with seven.

Under the system of voting, a first-place vote counted 14 points; a second-place vote nine, a third-place vote eight and so on until a 19th-place vote was worth one.

Notified he had won the award for the second time at a golf course not far from his Woodcliff Lake, N. J., home, Yogi happily accepted the congratulations of his fellow golfers and said, "Winning this one is a bigger thrill than winning it in 1951."

Berra, who batted .307 and drove in 125 runs last season, added modestly that he was "surprised" and that "There were a lot of good players who deserved to get it, too."

Only other AL catcher ever to win the award was Mickey Cochran, who like Berra, won it twice, once in 1928 and again in 1934.

Al Rosen, Cleveland third baseman who won the award unanimously in 1953, was far back in the current voting with only 16 points.

Other Contestants

Ted Williams of the Red Sox, who won the MVP award in 1942, were Jim Finigan, Athletics, and Virgil Trucks of the White Sox, 19 points apiece; Jackie Jensen, Red Sox, 17; Mickey Mantle and Irv Noren, Yankees, and Rosen, 16; Jim Busby, Senators, 7; Billy Goodman, Red Sox, Joe Coleman, Orioles and Mike Garcia, Indians, 6; Jim Hegan, Indians, 5; Hank Bauer, Yankees, Al Kahne, Tigers, and Bob Turley, Orioles, 4; and Cal Abrams, Orioles, Ray Boone and Steve Gromek, Tigers, and Roy Sievers, Senators, 1.

Christmas Traditions Discussed by Saline County Historical Society

The Saline County Historical society met in the club room of the public library for the regular December meeting Tuesday night. The president, Louis Aaron, appointed James Bond, John F. Foster, and Clarence Bosket to serve as a committee to select two historical sites in the area to be marked by bronze plaques.

In keeping with the holiday season various Christmas traditions were discussed. Mrs. Fred Armistead spoke on Clement Moore, the professor who wrote the poem "The Night Before Christmas." She explained how the name of St. Nicholas was corrupted into the modern Santa Claus. Then Mrs. Armistead presented three of her second grade pupils who read "The Night Before Christmas." The children were Howard Stearns, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Stearns; Debrah Wiley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wiley; and Billy Joe McCarty, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Joe McCarty.

Mrs. L. N. Davenport told the history of the song "Silent Night, Holy Night" and sang some of the familiar verses. A short biography of St. Nicholas, Archbishop of Asia Minor was given by Mrs. Ada Reese. She also related the story of the Evergreen Tree, which symbolizes the spirit of peace and good will. Mrs. Ray Altmire recalled the Christmas tradition of kissing under the mistletoe which came originally from England.

The principal part of the program was presented by Fred Wasson, who showed a collection of slides which he made on a tour of South America. The tour was conducted by the Baptist Brotherhood. Some of the principal cities visited were Quito, Ecuador; Lima, Peru; Santiago, Chile; Buenos Aires, Argentina; Rio de Janeiro, Brazil; and the island of Trinidad. The social committee for the meeting consisted of Mrs. William H. Farley, Mrs. Fred Wasson, Mrs. John Van Trease, and Mrs. Pauline Purcell.

ELDORADO TOWNSHIP HIGH SCHOOL CHAPTER of National Honor Society met in the ETHS assembly Wednesday afternoon at which time the officers and members of the honor group were introduced. During the ceremony an address was made by Attorney Arthur Summers, graduate of Eldorado high school in 1904. Shown are faculty sponsors, officers and Atty. Summers. Left to right, Principal W. A. ### Introduce Officers, Members Eldorado High Honor Society

Officers and members of the Eldorado Township high school chapter of the National Honor society were introduced at a special assembly program held Wednesday afternoon.

The entire student body, faculty and parents and friends were present for the assembly, which featured an address by Attorney Arthur Summers, graduate of the Eldorado high school with the class of 1904.

Following a greeting of welcome by W. A. Knoop, principal, the officers of the chapter were introduced as follows: Vicki Ford, president; Paul Plunkett, vice president; Evelyn Grant, secretary, and Vicki Poole, treasurer.

The purpose and aims of the National Honor society were described as three fold—1. To improve scholarship. 2. Develop service and leadership and 3. Mold character.

These three objectives were discussed by representatives of the three upper classes—members of the Freshman class are not eligible for membership.

Lonial-Lovellette, senior, talked on scholarship; service and leadership were discussed by Pat Elder, junior; and character was the subject of a talk by the sophomore.

Reunion with Son is Bit More Than That

ALBANY, N. Y. (U.P.)—When Mrs. Leo Di Pierro of nearby South Bethlehem was reunited with her son, Archangel Losabio, for the first time in 26 years, she got more than a son. He has a wife and nine children.

Mrs. Di Pierro had left her son, then 13 years old, in Italy because of immigration quota restrictions when she came to this country in 1928 as a World War I widow to marry her present husband.

ject discussed by sophomore Rita Waller. "The aim of education is to equip all of us to live a happier, better and fuller life," Atty. Summers declared as he congratulated those students attaining scholastic standing to be eligible for the National Honor society. All others of the student body were urged to strive for higher grades. "All of you have the native intelligence if you will just apply yourself, to attain the Honor society," the speaker declared.

An average of at least 4.5 is the scholastic requirement to become a member of the society.

HERE ARE THE FACTS... ABOUT TELEVISION BUYING!

Here Are the Reasons Why It Will Pay You To Investigate Before You Buy!

When You Buy A New Television Set, You Are Primarily Interested In:

GOOD RECEPTION

FRINGE-AREA as well as LOCAL STATIONS

MAINTENANCE COSTS

ECONOMY of UPKEEP over a LONG PERIOD

UHF-VHF EQUIPMENT

Cabinet Style...Color

... and in television, the same thing holds true as in any retail purchase:

YOU GET ONLY WHAT YOU PAY FOR

When You Buy a New Television, It Will Pay You to Remember These Facts:

1

YOU CAN'T GET $300.00 RECEPTION FROM A $150.00 SET! In fringe areas, such as the one where we live, a big, complicated antenna, sometimes haphazardly installed, is not the answer to good reception. A powerful 26-tube chassis, like the famed Philco, with complete, thorough antenna installation, is a "must" for good fringe area televiewing.

PAY A LITTLE MORE FOR A BETTER INVESTMENT. The economy of upkeep of a better TV set will often reduce the overall cost to less than that of a cheaper set. A 13-tube set is overworked, due to its small size, and requires more maintenance. Remember, too, that in many cases service calls are quite costly after the warranty on the set has expired, and the extra service calls a cheap 13-tube set will require more than make up the difference in price of sets. BEFORE YOU BUY, CHECK THE COST OF SERVICE CALLS BY YOUR DEALER AFTER THE WARRANTY EXPIRES.

3

UHF...VHF...WHAT TO GET? With new UHF and VHF stations coming within reach of the Harrisburg area, you should consider the small added expense of equipping your set for complete reception of all stations. Here, it will again pay you to remember that a fine all-channel tuner WILL NOT give you good reception on a cheap set with a minimum of tubes. Be sure of the best reception possible with a Philco!

CABINET STYLE AND CONSTRUCTION. Some inexpensive sets have cabinets that look fine...until close inspection reveals shoddy construction...thin veneers over common soft wood...construction that won't give lasting beauty! In Philco you'll find the finest woods and gleaming metals used in cabinets, to make your Philco a glamorous addition to your home!

When you have considered all these things, and when you have compared the value you find in Philco with the questionable value of cheaper sets, you'll soon see why it's a wise investment to pay a little more...get the best...and actually save in the long run! And you always get the best when you get Philco TV!

Juvenile Delinquency

Editorial — BY BRUCE BLOSSAT
The experts and the amateurs have a hundred answers to the juvenile delinquency problem, ranging from better training in the home to bigger police forces in our cities.

The New York City police decided not long ago to test the idea of the bigger police force, and the city's police commissioner now has come up with the results of the experiment.

Authorities chose a section of New York known as East Harlem, a tumble-down tenement zone jammed with a mixture of races, an area where crime ran rampant. The normal complement of police force guarding its populace is 186. Ten weeks ago some 250 extra policemen were added.

In the two and a half months that followed, major crime in the area was reduced nearly 50 per cent. The reinforced police battalions covering the section made arrests in 60 per cent of the cases that occurred, against an arrest record of just 20 per cent earlier.

Thus New York showed that more police could indeed cut the heavy crime rate, much of which is accounted for by juveniles stealing cars, robbing and mugging people on the streets, and so on. The uniformed cop in plain sight on the beat is a strong deterrent to wrongdoing.

But to achieve this striking reduction, note that the city had to boost its force about 150 per cent in an area only about a mile square.

Not every part of New York has so heavy an incidence of crime as East Harlem, but there are plenty like it in that city and most others in America. Imagine the cost of more than doubling the police force in all such crime-ridden areas.

The New York police commissioner told New Yorkers they can have "peace and security" in their homes "if they are willing to pay for it." He may have demonstrated the effectiveness of a bigger police force, but it's a grave question whether New York or any other U. S. community can foot the huge bill involved.

Besides, necessary though it be, discouraging potential criminals is just part of the task. The bigger and more challenging part is finding a way to build community life and raise young men and women so they will not be potential criminals.

New York's interesting experiment has only emphasized the magnitude of this job.

DREW PEARSON Says: Justice Department Will Proceed With Kansas City Star Prosecution; Ike Will Beat Democrats To Their Investigation Of Security Risks.

WASHINGTON—When the Kansas City Star and its publisher, Roy Roberts, were indicted criminally during the closing days of the Truman administration, almost everyone in politics figured this was one indictment which wouldn't last long when the Eisenhower administration took over.

For it was big, burly Roy Roberts who was among the first to urge Ike for President, and who advised with him during the pre-convention draft-like campaign.
Furthermore, Roberts, though under indictment, has been a frequent caller at the White House, has been frequently invited to the intimate stag dinners the President gives to a chosen few.

However, two years have now passed and not only has the indictment against the publisher of the Kansas City Star not been dropped, but the Justice Department plans to begin prosecution early next year.

Thereby hangs a significant story.

The man now in charge of the Justice Department's antitrust division, Stanley Barnes, a California Republican of the Chief Justice Earl Warren school of political thinking, has turned out to be one of the most forthright members of the Eisenhower administration. He has also turned out to be just as tough on big business and on monopolies as any member of the Roosevelt-Truman administration, even perhaps including famed trust-buster Thurman Arnold.

It's significant that Judge Barnes,
a former California state judge, is not playing any political favorites. A close study of the case has convinced him that it was by no means a political indictment brought as a result of rivalry between Harry Truman and Roy Roberts; but rather a bona fide case involving freedom of the press and the right of people in Kansas City to advertise where they please not where Roy Roberts wanted them to advertise.

So he's proceeding with the prosecution.
REVISING THE NUMBERS GAME

White House advisers aren't publishing it, but they have been busy on a new security program which will head off the Democratic probe of the so-called "numbers game."

This is the game in which Vice President Nixon, Attorney General
Brownell, and other GOP campaign speakers have claimed. Republicans cleaned out Democratic security risks which menaced the government.

The Democrats deny this. And to prove their case, Sen. Olin Johnston of South Carolina, chairman-to-be of the Civil Service committee, plans a sweeping probe of Republican firings. He believes he can prove that one-half the security risks were hired by Republicans.

To head off this probe, Eisenhower has referred the whole problem to the National Security Council which has already prepared top secret report No. 5437.1 which will not be made public for some time.
However, it can be revealed that the report recommends giving a far better break to security risks, plus a standardized procedure for all government agencies, instead of the hit-and-miss divergent systems of firing personnel.

White House advisers are even considering a plan to help the accused pay the cost of defending himself, or else making the cost of defense cheaper. In the past, men like Val Ovin, one of the State Department officials charged by McCarthy with being a Communist, had to raise money from friends to carry on his fight.
Though indicted, the Justice Department finally went into court after four long years and asked that the indictment be dismissed on the ground that it had no case.

Similarly, Abraham Chasanow, the Navy clerk suspended for one year as a security risk with no charge placed against him, finally was given an official apology by the assistant secretary of the Navy and restored to his job. Chasanow had no funds, but his attorney, Joe Fanelli, defended him as a public service.

White House advisers also propose separating bona fide security risks from heavy drinkers, loose talkers, and misfits, hitherto

Bike is Tops On Any Child's Christmas List

You would not want to ask a child on your gift list what he wanted for Christmas—at least not more than once—for that might spoil the surprise. But chances are good, if you did, that the answer would be "a bike."

For the past 40 years, according to surveys, a shiny American bike has ranked at the top of the heap as the Christmas gift preference of children themselves—which should give you a sure-fire hint if you're still not sure what to buy.

But before you go wheeling it homeward, the Bicycle Information Bureau suggests you remember these points for making your gift bike the right one.

1. Make sure that you have the right size. There are different-sized bikes for different-sized children, and buying a bike too large can lead to a later accident. Tell your dealer the age of the child and he will prescribe the wheel diameter.

2. Make sure that you have the right style. If Junior or Sis is under 12, the ideal bike is a standard balloon-tired model, with coaster brake, rugged frame and built-in lights and horn. This is the safest to ride and most economical to buy.

For experienced riders over 12, with a thorough knowledge of safety precautions, you might try a snappy new lightweight model equipped with hand brakes and gearshift. These are especially good for youngsters who live in hilly country, where the three-gear shift can be used.

in the home Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williams on East Walnut when the Bona Fide Federation met for the December business session.

The meeting was opened with the devotion led by Mrs. Williams after which the group sang "Silent Night." Mrs. Williams then read Luke 2:1-10.

During the business meeting a fund was raised to give Christmas cheer to the aged and shut-ins. A contribution was also given to the T. B. Fund.

Refreshments were served while the group enjoyed a television program.

The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Fryson, and Mesdames feed gas to an eager and high-

When you give it the extra nudge that moves it beyond the full throttle posihappened before in an automobile.

You hear a businesslike purr, which tells you that twenty power vanes, deep inside the 1955 Dynaflo Drive,* have changed their pitch—just like the variable pitch propellers on a modern air liner.

And with the same result in the way you get-up-and-go, with a safety-surge of power for pulling out of a tight spot on the highway.

Words can't describe it. It's a new sensation — something you simply must try for yourself.

There's nothing like it on the 1955

Fact is, there's a whole lot to see

There's fresh new

First Lady Has Her Shopping All Done

WASHINGTON — Mrs. Mamie Eisenhower won't get caught in a last-minute shopping rush for Christmas presents.

The First Lady is one of those rare and envied persons who spread their Christmas buying throughout the year.

Mrs. Mary Jane McCaffree, the secretary, said Mrs. Eisenhower did a little Yule shopping at Augusta, Ga., during the Thanksgiving holidays. But, much of her buying already had been done—most of it by mail.

Mrs. McCaffree said Mrs. Eisenhower "collects" Christmas gifts as she comes across them—be it June or January.

Old-time friends from early Army days swell her shopping list, as do foreign chiefs of state. The Eisenhowers more recently have added to their large circle of friends. Then there are families of the President's four brothers and Mrs. Eisenhower's sister.

Mrs. Eisenhower already has decided on the gift she and the President will give to the some 800 secret service men, guards, secretaries and White House help this year.

Mrs. McCaffree "can't tell" what it is—"That would spoil it."

Centralia Woman Banned from Selling Oil and Gas Leases

SPRINGFIELD — Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter today issued an order prohibiting Mrs. Ann M. Fowley, Centralia, from selling interests in oil and gas leases in Illinois. Carpenter said Mrs. Fowley was charged with selling securities not registered with his office and failing to give buyers a proper prospectus. He said the securities involved were fractional undivided interests in oil wells 1 and 2 on the Welch lease, near Centralia.

Keep America Beautiful Campaign Underway to Halt 'Littering Up' the Highways

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS

WASHINGTON — A man in California was found guilty of "litterbugging." That is, throwing things out of his car and messing up the countryside. In his case, it was empty beer cans.

The untidy character was sentenced to (1) pick up all beer cans along a quarter mile of highway and (2) sit in the jailhouse for 28 days.

That is the sort of thing that prompted a lot of folks, including the American Automobile Association, state legislatures, and officials to form Keep America Beautiful, Inc.

Boy Scouts have gotten into the act. They have adopted a creed: "I will treat the great outdoors as a heritage to be improved for our greater enjoyment."

The Girl Scouts have gone along with this, too, and pledge themselves to keep trash and garbage out of America's waters, fields, woods and roadways.

'Your Trash Bag'

The "litterbug" thus came into being and is being distributed around the country. It is a waterproof little sack, distributed by the AAA and others. The first one I saw came from the Inland Automobile Association, which distributed it in cooperation with the Spokane, Wash., Daily Chronicle.

There is a big sign on the outside of the waxed bag. It says: "This is your trash bag. Please use it as a container for your waste paper, tin cans, bottles and other debris."

There is some other literature.

It suggests that if you are traveling you can deposit the bag in garbage cans when you stop for lunch along the highways. Or find a can where it can be dumped at motels—or gas station.

Never on the highway.

Tangles On Trip

A lot of communities already have joined the drive. Newspapers, like the Los Angeles Mirror and others, have printed editorials charging that "litterbugs are messing up the roads again."

The New York Herald Tribune titled its piece "For A Cleaner America."

My first tangle with the anti-litterbuggers came a little while back when I took a motor trip across the country with Mike Frome and Jerry Fisher, a couple of much-traveled gents who work for the AAA. Mike is from the Washington office and Jerry from Detroit.

Neither of them had any license to tell me what to do, but they were all over me from coast to coast.

Not Too Hot

Going through the Redwood groves of California, both jumped on me for flicking cigarette ashes out of the window of the car.

"Might set a forest on fire," came the chorus.

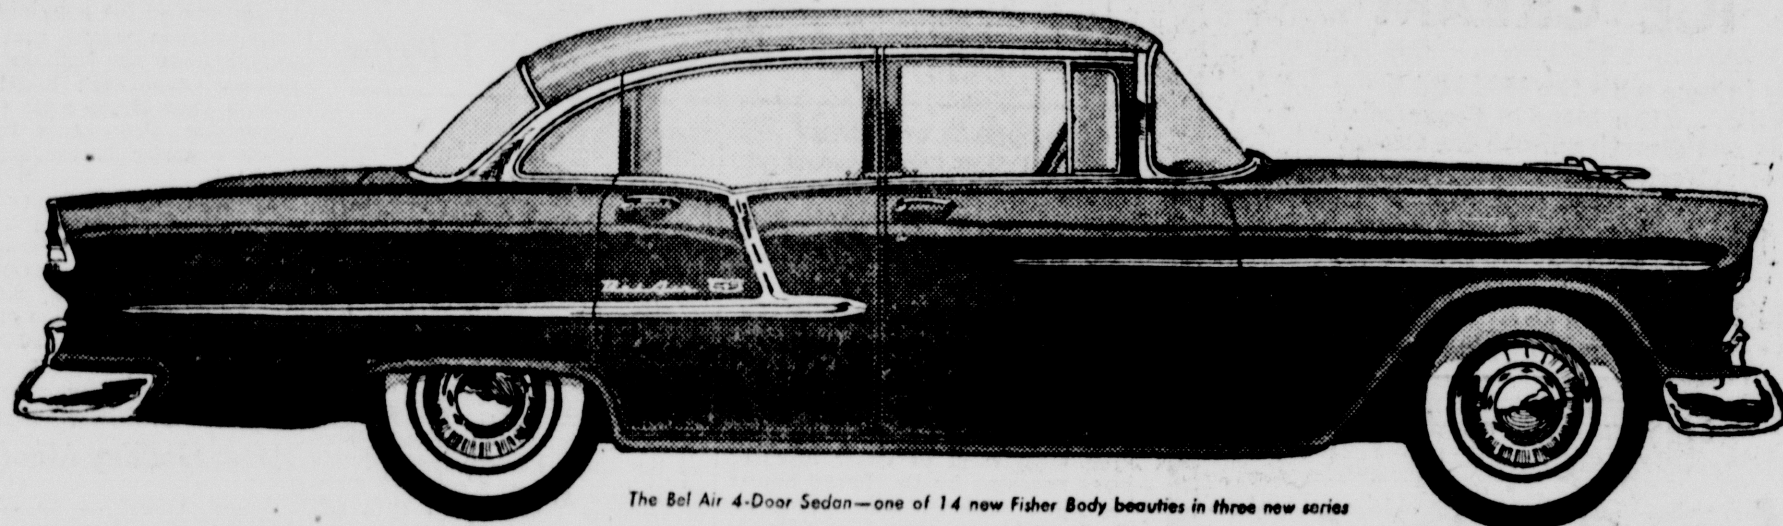

Once I pitched the butt end of a hot dog out of the window and had to fight it out with my friends. They admitted that a hot dog wasn't hot enough to set anything on fire—it was cold when we bought it—but wasn't it cluttering up the beautiful scenery?

I had to admit that maybe it was.

The exciting new idea behind the motoramic Chevrolet

The Bel Air 4-Door Sedan—one of 14 new Fisher Body beauties in three new series

Maybe once in a car-buying lifetime, you come across something that breaks all the old patterns and establishes new ones. This is that kind of car. This is the true story of how Chevrolet and General Motors shaped a new idea in steel.

Like most good ideas, this one is pretty simple. But it wasn't an easy one to carry out. For Chevrolet and General Motors set out with the idea of building the first low-priced car that would do all these things:

- bring you the very freshest and finest styling to be had.
- bring you the most advanced engine design and engineering features.
- bring you the kind of performance and the kind of ride that have never been available before in a low-priced car.
- bring you the highest quality of manufacture and materials.

All this in Chevrolet's price field? That did take some doing! And isn't it logical that only Chevrolet and General Motors have the people, the skills, the resources and facilities, to carry out this exciting new concept? Here is how this new Chevrolet changes all your own ideas about cars!

Real Show-Car Styling!

Your eye tells you the Motoramic Chevrolet is no styling "patch-up" job. A rakish, low profile... soft swiftness from its sleek rear fenders to its wide-eyed Sweep-Sight windshield... a new outlook for motoring. And that outlook doesn't change when you slip inside... there's more room for hats and hips... exciting fabrics and trim harmonized with the whole car... as carefully as a bride matches carpet to curtains.

A Sensational Ride!

You live the new idea instantly... you glide... actually glide because spherical joints "roll with the punch" of the road in Chevrolet's new Glide-Ride front suspension. And outrigger rear springs mean new balance in turns... turns made so effortless by new ball-race steering.

And when you stop suddenly, new Anti-Dive braking control checks that nosing down in front... you get more level stopping. Tubeless tires mean much greater protection against blowouts. And with new high-level ventilation there's fresher air.

Power Beyond Compare!

You also feel the new idea quickly... quick power like a panther's paw with the new "Turbo-Fire V8" (162 h.p.) and two new "Blue-Flame" 6's. And sparking this performance is a 12-volt electrical system giving you better ignition, faster starting, greater electrical reserve for any of the power assists you might desire. You have a transmission choice of economical Overdrive and improved, automatic Powerglide (optional at extra cost) or standard shift.

Even Air Conditioning!

And if you desire the convenience of power assists (optional at extra cost)... you'll find new power-steering and improved power brakes on all models. Power-controlled windows and powershift seat are available on the Bel Air and "Two-Ten" models, while air conditioning may be added on V8 models.

Won't You Try It?

Here, we can only tell you how successfully the Motoramic Chevrolet expresses the new idea behind it. But the car itself can quickly show you! Come in for a demonstration drive, won't you, first chance you get.
